Sixteen-Volume History Of U.S. Offered by Von's

A new sixteen-volume American Heritage New Illustrated History of the United States, with a foreword written especially for volume one by our late President John F. Kennedy, will go on sale this week in Von's Grocery Stores in the Los Angeles area. This new series is a collaboration between American Heritage and the Dell Publishing Co., Inc.

The supermarket distribution, according to George T. Delacorte Jr., the publisher, is designed to bring the books within the reach of every American family. Volume one goes on sale this week at a special introductory price of 49 cents. Volumes two through sixteen, with a new volume available each week for the next 15 weeks, will be priced at 99 cents. THE THEME of President Kennedy's foreword to the series is that a knowledge of history is a means of strength. "There is little that is more important for an American citizen to know than the history and tradition of his country," wrote the late President.

"Without such knowledge, he stands uncertain and defenseless before the world, knowing neither where he has come from nor where he is going." Robert G. Athearn, professor of History at the University of Colorado, is the author of the completely new text for the history series. The introduction is by Pulitzer Prize winner Allan Nevins. The 16 volumes cover the entire history of America, from the discovery of our continent to our current exploration of outer space. EACH VOLUME is illustrated throughout with paintings, photographs, and documents of authentic Americana, many reproduced in full color. Each book contains two portfolios illustrating an important event or aspect of the period. In addition, each volume features a special contribution by an eminent historian on an important event, personality or aspect of the period. The sixteen volumes are titled: The New World, Colonial America, The Revolution, A New Nation, Young America, The Frontier, War With Mexico, The Civil War, Winning The West, Age of Steel, The Gilded Age, A World Power, World War I and The Twenties, The Roosevelt Era, World War II, and America Today.

Silver Arrows were presented to Richard Stein, Steve Jones, Steve Leger, Steve Hadley, Robert Warmuenede, and Ed Johnson. The Gold Arrow was presented to Ed Johnson and a bear badge to Richard Stein. Steve Leger also received a one-year pin and denner stripe, and assistant denner stripes were presented to Tom Hayduk and William LaFay.

Scout Troop 315

Boy Scout Troop 315, sponsored by Torrance Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 785, has been granted an honorary troop membership in Del Rio Council.

This honor was bestowed following the troop's attendance of a weekend camporee at Vandenberg Air Force Base as guest of the Del Rio District Mission Council. The invitation was extended by Jay Spears, Del Rio District commissioner to Harry Thayer, Troop 315 scoutmaster. Thayer was Del Rio commissioner until his transfer to Torrance. Following arrival at Vandenberg at midnight and preparing camp by flashlight, Troop 315 was awarded first place in campsite preparation, layout, and cleanliness. Two nine-boy patrols of the local troop entered competitions and the cobra patrol, led by David Rose, placed first in the first aid contest. The flaming arrow patrol, led by Tom Thayer, won second place on the personal fitness obstacle course. Al Grodrian, council executive of Mission council, awarded the honorary troop membership to Troop 315 and invited members to attend future council events.
